At the sentencing hearing on April 23, 2008, this Court orally modified the conditions of Mr. Hickey's release. In particular, this Court ordered 1) that the condition requiring Mr. Hickey to live at 840 Capp Street with his in-laws shall be rescinded, and 2) that the condition forbidding Mr. Hickey from any contact with his son outside of the presence of a supervising adult be rescinded. United States Pretrial Services Officer Tim Elder has now contacted defense counsel Elizabeth Falk indicating that he needs a written order stating the aforementioned.

WHEREFORE, the conditions of defendant Daniel Hickey's release pending self-surrender to

1 the Bureau of Prisons are hereby MODIFIED as follows:

- 2 1. Mr. Hickey is no longer required to live at 840 Capp Street, San Francisco, California
3 with his in-laws. He is hereby permitted to return to his residence at 2935 Clay Street,
4 San Francisco, California and may reside there 24 hours a day with his wife, Estella
5 Hickey and his son Harlan;
- 6 2. Mr. Hickey is hereby permitted to interact with his son outside of the presence of a 7 supervising adult. The condition requiring supervised visitation between Mr. Hickey
8 and his son Harlan is hereby REVOKED.

9 IT IS SO ORDERED.
